Louis J. F. Herold, 1839 (MESSIAH, alt.); arr. George Kingsley, 1839

1. Je - sus walks on cit - y streets. Eve - ry per - son that I meet
2. Je - sus walks a - mid the throng. Rich and home - less, weak and strong,
3. Je - sus walks where few will go, with the ones few want to know,
4. Je - sus walks in o - pen air, through the parks and cit - y square.

could be Je - sus' hands and feet, speak his words of com - fort sweet.
proud and hum - ble, right and wrong— all to Je - sus Christ be - long;
love and kind - ness quick to show for the low - est of the low.
He may sit for hours there, tak - ing time for rest and prayer.

As I make my bus - y way through the bus - tling crowd each day, eve - ry shape and age and hue, mem - bers of his fam - ily too.
Lone - ly cor - ners in the night sud - den - ly glow ne - on bright
In the town, I too can find qui - et space to fill my mind

if I search with eyes of grace, I find Je - sus in each face.
Treat - ing them as he would do, I see Je - sus' smile shine through.
if, like Je - sus, I in - vite all to walk with - in his light.
with a syn - er - gy di - vine: God and cit - y in - ter - twined.
