

84. Thy Will Be Done

Linda Bonney Olin, 2012

Jean Sibelius, 1899
FINLANDIA

$\text{♩} = 120$

1. When I re - cite the words that Je - sus taught us,
2. You see, I've heard be - liev - ers tell each oth - er
3. Your Ho - ly Spir - it draws me to the Bi - ble.
4. This is God's will: that I, though un - de - serv - ing,

6

"Thy king - dom come; thy will be done," I pray.
that grief and ag - o - ny must be our lot.
For your as - sur - ance, that's the place to look.
shall be the heir to heav - en through his son.

11

But in my mind, these words are light - ly spo - ken;
"It is God's will," they say when peo - ple suf - fer.
Your lov - ing will was long a - go in - scribed there,
Be - cause Christ died, I shall in - her - it glo - ry,

16

I don't sin - cere - ly wish for what I say.
"Re - sign your - self to God's will," they have taught.
up - on the pag - es of your sa - cred book.
e - ter - nal life, when this world's race is run.

THY WILL BE DONE (FINLANDIA)

21

I hes - i - tate to put my - self in your hands,
 But if it brings us on - ly pain and sor - row,
 I read that earth - ly trials are tem - po - rar - y.
 What lav - ish grace! I joy - ful - ly sur - ren - der!

26

to tru - ly hope your will is done to - day.
 how can I pray for your will as I ought?
 Your will for me is pleas - ing, per - fect, good.
 With all my soul, I pray, "Thy will be done!"