

85. Not Our Way but Yours, O Lord

Linda Bonney Olin, 2016

English melody, 17th cent.; arr. by Martin F. Shaw, 1915

ROYAL OAK, alt.

♩ = 112 Refrain (Unison)

Not our way but yours, — O — Lord, the way that's right and — sure.

5 You shall be the way, — the — truth, the life for - ev - er - more. Fine

9

1. You gave a great com - mis - sion, e - quipped — and sent us forth.
2. You called us back, re - mind - ing that your — way was the best.
3. You marked our route with ar - rows so there — would be no doubt.
4. You stopped us when we wan - dered and turned — us right a - round.
5. But then we saw how meek - ly you walked — to Cal - va - ry.

14 D.C.

But when you said, "Go south now," in - stead we head - ed — north.
But when you said, "Go east now," in - stead we head - ed — west.
But when you said, "Go in now," in - stead we head - ed — out.
But when you said, "Go up now," in - stead we head - ed — down.
We lis - ten when you call us, "Come now, and fol - low — me!"